Mr. Kasson made the following additional statement of his opinions:

"I have no desire to comment upon the action of our Government so long as the authentic information in possession of the public is so meagre. From the letter of credence delivered Willis, and from his address to the President of the actual Hawaiian Government, as published in the morning journals, it is simply incredible that in his right hand the Minister should carry such assurances of friendship from our Government and in his left hold an assassin's dagger for the destruction of the government to which he is accredited. I do not believe it. It might have been true in the mediaeval days of the Venetian and Florentine republics. It is impossible in these days of the Christian American Republic. "What are the facts to justify your disbellef?"

was asked. Twice since the deposition of the Queen the present Executive of the United States has recognized the actual government of the Sandwich Islands. Once before its own agents had reported the facts of her overthrow, and once since. Twice has it sent diplomatic agents to this Hawaiian Government and has formally received a Minister from it. Other governments have followed its example. In fact, there was and is no rival government to be recognized. Under international law the actual government

Well, let us consider that hypothesis theoretically and practically. Let us suppose that disputed fact to be proven. Suppose that the United States marines landed in a civil tumult to protect American interests, and had a decisive effect, moral or otherwise, which turned the scale in favor of the revolutionists. Does that justify the same Governmen; long afterward, after old interests and conditions have been readjusted on the new basis, and new contracts made, new interests accrued, new laws enacted, new foreign relations established, new domestic institutions accepted by the people, in interfering? After all these changed conditions can the United States by open violence restore the monarchical Government and the status quo Any one can see that the restoration of that status has become impossible by any such aggressive intervention. For it would

of that status has become impossible by any such aggressive intervention. For it would upset all that was new while restoring only the throne. The injured interests would have a just claim for indemnity against the United States, so far as pecuniary damage resulted. If our forces should kill or harm men, or damage property, in the course of military operations, they would beyond question oblige our Government in justice to respond in damages. "For it is to be remembered that our Government is not making the aggy selfe 19 17-21 any wrongs done to itself. It is 12 'right the wrong either done by its own former agents or done to an alien Queen. For itself it has absolutely no complaint or claim against the is and Government. It would be, therefore, a mere Quixotic assault against a foreign people for the sole benefit of a foreign Queen. For such a luxury it must pay for all resulting damages. No, do not ask me to believe that the President and his Secretary have turned knights-errant. Secretary have turned knights-errant and his Secretary have turned knightserram or have commissioned Admiral Irwin and Minister Willis to go in search of the Holy Grail in distant lands, with our people to pay the expenses of the holy expedition. If a wrong was done by the former Administration to the dusky Queen, let us pay her damages, and have done with it. To overthrow the present Government is to substitute a new aggressive wrong for the alleged old one. They do a new wrong to right the old. The next Administration may feel called upon to right this one. Where will be the end of our Quixotism? Must our diplomacy become the laughing stock of the world.

Administration sent the White "The late Administration sent the White and the White which we had quickly recognized before it was warm in its seat, and to discourage the Royalists. Let us while undoing the 'wrongs' of the last Administration send an Admiral down there and restore the monarchy to its down there and restore the monarchy to its legitimate heir. Let the two systems again have a fair start—the monarchy and the republic—while we keep hands off. Let it be understood that incipient republics are not to expect sympathy from the great American Republic. Certainly you cannot expect me to attribute such absurditles to any American Administration, Democratic or Republican."

"That would not only be a gross violation of international law in itself-invading a foreign country against which we have no complaintsbut would be an incitement to a new civil war on the island, for the bloodshed of which we should be responsible."

"Could not the Government take a middle course?"

"If the conscience of this Administration is really oppressed by the sins of President Harrison's Secretary, it can relieve itself by withdrawing alike our ships and our diplomatic representative, and leaving the actual government to itself, to the Queen, to the aborigines, and to the temptations of other foreign governments in Europe and Asia. This involves neither an act of war, nor intervention in the local affairs of a foreign country, nor an insult to republican institutions, nor a novel precedent in American diplomacy, which will surely return to plague the inventors. But I am reluctant to speak on this subject in ignorance of authere facts. I was not in the secrets of the former Administration, nor am I acquainted with the secrets of this. There should be no partisanship in considering our foreign relations—only patriotism. Let us hope that the fears indicated by an excited public opinion

In diplomatic circles the belief is beginning to be expressed that this Government is not the only one actively interested in the Hawalian situation. There are evidences that Japan will at Honolulu. Word has come that the Japnese steamer Naniwa-Kan has sailed from Yokohama to Honolulu, where she should arrive about December 2. It is supposed that she has gone to Hawaii for the purpose of pro-tecting Japanese interests in the islands. The State Department recently, and this fact, taken in connection with the ordering of a Japanese cruiser to Honolub, has brought out half a Gozen theories as to the purpose of the Japanese dozen theories as to the purpose of the Japanese Government.

For several months there has been more or less friction between Japan and the Provisional Government of Hawaii. The Provisional Government has been opposed to contract labor, and in their proposition for annexation agreed that it should be forbidden by such laws as might be suggested by the United States. The Japanese Government, which has exercised a paternal supervision over the labor contracts made by its subjects in Hawaii, and has repeatedly enforced them against subjects of the Queen, is said to be in favor of the restoration of Liliuokaiani, provided that the measures employed shall not endanger Japanese liferests.

It is intimated upon the basis of these known facts that a full understanding between the United States and Japan now exists, and that the two Governments are co-operating to secure the restoration of the Queen without bloodshed. The policy of the United States would prevent the intervention of Japan should that Nation attempt to overturn the Provisional Government were advised that both the United States and Japan desire to restore the Queen, and had assembled a naval force ample to carry out any plan of restoration, it would quietly vacate.

MR. THURSTON'S DISPATCHES AHEAD. HE SENT THEM VIA VANCOUVER-A FOOLISH STORY ABOUT DEPORTATION.

San Francisco, Nov. 19 (Special).—The Canadian Pacific is playing an important part in getting early information to Hawaii. One of its liners from Vancouver carried the first hint to President Dole that he might expect trouble from Minister Willis. The Tribune correspondent learned today on the best of authority that the steamer which arrived at Honolulu two days before the Australia took urgent dispatches from Minister Thurston advising President Dole that Clevland and Gresham had decide to act on Commissioner Blount's report. Mr. Thurston did not know the actual contents of Secretary Gresham's letter, nor the instructions which Minister Willis received, but he knew pretty accurately the spirit of the policy and instructions. President Dole kept his own counsel, and the only influence of this warning was seen in the extra attention paid to the Citizen's Reserve, a force of 400 men who are organized to turn out at a given signal, like the San Francisco Vigi-lants when under the leadership of William T. Cole-

An attempt was made here this morning by "The Call' to create a sensation by the working up of the declaration of ex-Consul-General Severance that Under international law the actual government to be recognized. Under international law the actual government trepresents an independent foreign nation over which the United States have no jurisdiction."

"But they have offered to come under our jurisdiction," suggested The Tribune correspondent.

"And the President has rejected the offer. That leaves the status quo ante. If we had accepted the offer, we should have gained the right to adjust the claims of the Queen; but having rejected it, there remains to Hawaii her original status of an independent nation and we continue to be a foreign nation without the right of interference in her internal affairs."

"If "RIGHTING" OF THAT "WRONG."

"I suppose you know that the Secretary of State holds that the United States ought to "right the wrong" of a previous Administration in interfering, as it is said, to overthrow the Queen?" volunteered the correspondent.

"Well, let us consider that hypothesis theoretically and practically. Let us suppose that discussion of the consult of the declaration of ex-Consul-General Severance that declaration of ex-Consul-General Severance that the ex-Queen Liliuokalani would be deported the moment any pressure was brought to bear on the Provisional Government. this is not shared by other prominent Hawaiians who have come up recently from the islands. TURN TRIP-A DIPLOMAT'S MYSTIFICATION. Washington, Nov. 19.-There was a total dearth of Hawaiian news in all official circles to-night. Secretary Gresham spent a good part of the day at the State Department and at the White House, and it is supposed that he and the President had before them a translation of the dispatch from Minister Willis which was received at the Department Saturday. The Australia will sail from San Francisco on Thursday next on the return voyage, and the trains to-night carried an unusually large and doubtless interesting official mail, from both the State Department and the Hawaiian Legation, which will go out on that steamer.

On the same day the Alameda is due to arrive at San Francisco from Honolulu, after which there will be an interval of twenty days before the next steamer is scheduled to reach this country from There will be no break in this long wait unless private enterprise should provide a means of communication. A report was current here to-night that a vessel had been chartered by a Western newspaper, and had already sailed for Honolulu with instructions to return so as to reach San Francisco about December 5. A member of the diplomatic corps well acquainted with both sides of the Hawaiian question, was asked for an explanation of the present situation as it pre-

An officer of the steamer Australia said that bets had been openly made that the Queen would be restored. In one instance, he said, a large sum had been offered on a wager that she would be on the throne again in three months.

SECRETARY LAMOND'S NEW ASSISTANT. JOSEPH E. DOE. OF WISCONSIN, TO SUCCEED GENERAL L. A. GRANT IN THE WAR DEPARTMENT. Washington, Nov. 12.

L. A. Grant, Assistant Secretary of War, which was tendered to the President on the incoming of the Administration, has been accepted to take effect December 15, and it is announced that General Joseph B. Doe, Adjutant-General of the Wisconsin National Guard, has been selected as his successor.

General Doe is a lawyer, residing at Janesville, Wis. His name does not appear in the register of Wis. His name does not appear in the register of either the volunteer or the regular army, and as he is said to be a young man, it is inferred that he did not see service during the War of the Rebellion, and that his military experience has been confined to the Wisconsin National Guard. He is reported to possess marked executive ability. Secretary Lamont some time since said that he did not wish a change made in the office of Assistant Secretary who would practically relieve him of all the military routine work of the office. General Dee, it is reported, fills the bill.

BECOMING AN INTERNATIONAL QUESTION. Washington, Nov. 19.-Serious questions of international law have arisen in the case of the Russian convicts under arrest at San Francisco, and Secretary Carlisle has turned over the entire matter to the State Department. Several telegraphic messages have passed between the Russian Minister, Prince Cantacuzen, and his Home Office, which have been transmitted to Secretary Gresham. It will be recalled that these convicts were landed at San Francisco, having been picked up at sea by a passing vessel which was bound to the United States.

TARIFF REVISION TO BE MADE WITH MORE

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE AT THE POLLS NOT COMPOSTING TO THE REFORMERS.

IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TELEUNE.] Washington, Nov. 19.-Democratic members of the Ways and Means Committee continue to assert that the forthcoming revenue bill will be a radical meas. and one that will convince the country that the pledge of the Democratic party in its National Convention last year to enact a taria "for revenue only" is to be redeemed in full if the Democratic majority in the Senate and House of Represent: tives show the same courage, sincerity and firm-ness in dealing with the subject that have been exhibited by the majority of the Ways and Means Committee. In private conversation, however, some of them frankly admit that the prospect of the passage of a radical revision through both branches of months ago, or even one month ago. Whatever the may say publicly to the effect that the result of the recent elections were not affected in the least by the tariff question, every man of them privately takes a different tone and shows that he knows that the tariff had a great deal to do with

POLITICAL, CHANGES IN CONGRESS DISTRICTS. While official or other complete and accurate re-urns of all the elections held on November 7 are not yet accessible, enough is known to justify and austain the belief that at least thirty Congress districts which are to-day represented by Democratical and Populists in the House of Representatives were carried by the Republicans two weeks ago. In Massachusetts the towns and cities which compase the Vth and VIIth Districts gave Greenhalge plurali-ties of about 1,000 and 4,700, respectively, according to unofficial returns. Stevens, Democrat, was elected in the Vth District in 1822 by a plucality of elected in the Vin District in Sr. by a parameter at about 1.90. He is a member of the Vrays and Means Committee. The Vilth District elected Lodge, Republican, last fail by a plurality of shout 2.90, but at the special election in April, 1833, Everett, Democrat, was elected by a plurality of thirty-four work for lower wages on account of the threats

In New-York five Congress districts now represented by Democrats gave pluralities for Patmer. Republican candidate for Secretary of State, two weeks ago. The Hild District, which gave Hendrix, Democrat, a plurality of 5.38 het told, gave Palmer, Republican, a plurality of about 4.48; the Vth District, which gave Graham, Democrat, a plurality of 2.187 last year, gave Palmer a plurality of about 6.686 this year, the Vth District, which gave Magner a plurality of 5.912 in 1822, gave Palmer a plurality of 1.882; the XXISI Congress District, which returned Schermerhorn, Democrat, last fail by a plurality of 1.800 gave Palmer a plurality of 1.800 gave Palmer a plurality of 1.800 gave Palmer a plurality of 1.800 het XXIIId Congress District, in which Lockwood, Democrat, received a plurality of about 2.500 last year, gave Palmer a small plurality this year. with both sides of the Hawaiian question, was askel for an explanation of the present situation as it presented itself to him. "I am at loss to conceive the purposes of the Administration." he said: "I have tried to put myself in its place, and construct a theory which would account for the known facts, but I cannot It is inexplicable that Secretary Gresham's report and recommendations to the President should have been published when it was so entirely within the power of himself and the President to have kept them secret until Minister Willish had carried out his instructions. I say this because I am credibly informed that Secretary Gresham has told several persons that the Minister's instructions were in accordance with the recommendations had been possible, but not probable; which is that the publication was made under the belief that the recital of the facts, as set forth by the Secretary in connection with the revolution would satisfy the publication was made under the belief that the recital of the facts, as set forth by the Secretary in connection with the revolution would satisfy the public cation was made under the belief that the recital of the facts, as set forth by the Secretary in connection with the revolution would satisfy the public cation was made under the belief that the recital of the facts, as set forth by the Secretary in connection with the revolution would satisfy the public cation was made under the belief that the recital of the facts, as set forth by the Secretary in connection with the revolution would satisfy the public cation was made under the belief that the recital of the facts, as set forth by the Secretary in connection with the revolution would satisfy the public that the course marked out for this Government was the proper one to pursue.

"But what actually occurred at Honolulu, according to the news brought by the Australia, adds to my perpexity. I can scarcely conceive that a man, and especially such a man as Mr. Willis is represented to be, should go to President Dole wit represented by Democrats gave Republican pluralities this year. Mr. McAleer, who ran as an independent Republican last year in the IIII District is a Democrat, and votes with his party on all political one-tions. The Nith District, which gave Hines, Democrat, for Congress, a plurality of nearly 1,500 last year, gave a small purality for Jackson, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, this year. The XIIIIth Congress District, which gave Relly, Democrat, a plurality of 721 lww weeks ago. The XXIVth Congress District, which gave a Republican plurality of 721 lww weeks ago. The XXIVth Congress District, which gave a Republican plurality of 1,254 last fail, gave a Republican plurality of 1,254 last fail, gave a Republican plurality of about 1,696 this year, and the XXVIth District. In which Shiey, Democrat, People's party and Frohibitionist, received a plurality of 2,357 in 1822, gave a Republican plurality of 5,256 this year. Besides these losses of districts the Democrats suffered despity coungin in Democratic districts that have always been regarded as invincible to throw them into consternation. Thus the Democratic Guardity in the IXIX District was reduced from 1,255 to 488, and in the XXVIIIth District from 5,765 to 488, and in the XXVIIIth District from 5,765 to 488, and in the XXVIIIth District from 5,765 to 1,516.

and a large proportion of the population is engaged in or dependent upon the coal-mining industry for its support. Some of the most energetic profess made to the Ways and Means Committee were by the coal operators and miners of this district, which adjoins the coal-mining district in West Virginia which is now represented in Congress by William I. Wilson, chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means.

I mofficial but fairly complete returns of the general report from the engineers who wentered at least sky of the districts now represented in Congress by Democrats, that the Democrats suffered heavy losses in the other districts which never represented to the districts the carried by Republican gave increased obstrait, which gave Ritchie, Democrat a plurality of fourteen, loss year. The XIII DESC. The Milit DESC. The Mili represented by them in Congress exceeded 15,500, while in the district now represented by Riert (Dem), which is the centre of the pottery and glass industries of Ohio, the net Republican gain was nearly 7,500. In the HIId Ohio District, now represented by Houk (Dem.), the Democratic plurality was reduced from 4,316 in 1821 to less than 250 in 1821, and the official returns may show that it was wheel out altogether. In the IVth District the Democratic plurality was reduced from 7,504 to about 4,400; in the Vth District, from 5,604 to less than 1,000; in the XIIIth District from 6,254 to about 4,400; in the XVIIth District from 6,254 to about 1,200, and in the XVIIth District from 6,254 to about 1,200, and in the XVIIth District from 6,254 to 2,250. The foregoing facts and figures will probably make the Ohio Democrats in the House of Representatives much less anxious for free wood, iron ore and coal and a radical reduction in the duties on manufactured articles than they professed to be a few months, or even one month.

in the duties on manufactured articles than they professed to be a few months, or even one month, ago.

The returns of the Chicago election appear to show that two of the Congress districts which show that two of the Congress districts which elected Democrats to the House of Representatives last year are now safely Republican. In Nebraska the 1st Congress District, which gave Bryan, Democrat, a slim plurality last year, gave a Republican plurality two weeks ago. The returns of the county elections in Kansas are incomplete, but should have been received to indicate that the Republicans carried every Congress District, as well as the State itself, by safe pluralities. If the election had been for Representatives in Congress the Democrats and Populists would have lost five memoers.

It appears therefore that the Democrats lost two Congress districts in Massachusetts, five in New-York, five in New-Jersey, five in Pennsylvania, one in Maryland, six in Ohio, two in Blinois, one in Nebraska and four in Kansas, besides the State which is represented by a Congressiman-at-large in the Lilld Congress, making a total of thirty-two. These figures must be the reverse of encouraging to "tariff reformers." No matter what assertions they make publicly in denial of the proposition, that threat by the party in power to break down the system of protection to American labor and industries was an influential factor in determining the result of the recent elections in nine Northern and Western States.

TRAINS "HELD UP" BY STRIKERS. COUPLING PINS DRAWN AND THE CREWS STONED

NEAR MAUCH CHUNK. Mauch Chunk, Penn., Nov. 19.-The tie-up on the Lehigh Valley Railroad has not yet reached the Hazelton, Mahanoy and Beaver branches. On the Beaver branch to-day coal trains were running without interruption. From fifteen to twenty crews are employed on this branch, stationed at Wetherly At I o'clock this afternoon Dispatcher Harleman who has charge of the division, said that so far no crew had refused to go out. A Beaver branch coal train on its way from Packerton to Wetherly was held up by strikers at East Mauch Chunk at 3 o'clock this morning. The train was boarded by three or four men, who applied brakes and pulled three or four men, who applied brakes and pulled the link-pins. They then stoned the members of the crews. Who the men were, no one knows. The night was dark, and the engineer concluded it would be safest to wait for daylight before proceeding. Four or five trains were in his rear. When daylight appeared all proceeded up the road to their destination. About the same hour a live-stock train which was pulling out of Packerton for Easton was also held up in the same manner, in the lower end of the Packerton vard. This train also waited for daylight before it proceeded on its way.

Six engines from Coxton were abandoned last night at Packerton by helr crews. During this afternoon four freight trains were forwarded east from Packerton. They were manned by crews from the Lehigh division. Brotherhood meetings were held in the Second Ward of Mauch. Chunk this afternoon. POLICE STOPPED THE CONTESTS.

THE STATEN ISLAND ATHLETIC CLUB ANGRY OVER THE PREVENTION OF BOXING MATCHES.

The members of the Staten Island Athletic Club are angry over what they call an unwarranted interference by the police with legitimate sport. They hint in the same connection that favoritism has been shown, and that scientific exhibitions of skill are stopped while real fights are permitted. The trouble arises from the fact that on Saturday night the club had arranged a match between night the club had arranged a match between some local boxers, and as an extra attraction some New-York men had agreed to don the soft glovez. There were no tickets issued. Every member had a right to attend. It was understood that a charge of $3 was to be made for hat ar't coat checks, but no entrance fee was to be charged. Arthur Livingston, the well-known club man of this city, was in charge of the arrangements. At $29 o'clock Saturday evening a large number of the members of the club-house. Everything was in readiness, and, in a few moments the first bout of the evening would have begun.

moments the first bout of the evening would have begun.

At this point the disturbing element appeared in the snape of one of the Sergeants of the Richmond County police and two of his men. The Sergeant was Drummond, of the Second Precinct. West Brighton. He announced to Mr. Livingston that he had been sent to the clubhouse by Captain Blake, with orders to prevent the matches coming off. There was a hurried conference ambng the members of the club, and an effort was made to temporize with the police. This was useless, as Sergeant Drummond announced that he intended to stay until the crowd had departed and see that no gloves were donned that night.

An hour and a half was wasted in the endeavor to induce Sergeant Drummond to listen to reason. He remained obdurate, and at 19 o'clock Mr. Livingston and his friends gave up the fight and the members left the house. Sergeant Drummond and his men remained until the men who were to have taken an active part in the affair had gone to their homes.

HE MADE HER DRINK CARBOLIC ACID

THE REPORTED FIENDISH CRUELTY OF A HUS-EAND-HIS WIFE WILL PROBABLY DIE.

To judge by present indications Henry Karsten, a drunken brick handler, will take his trial for a barbarous murder. His wife, Mary, lies in the Harlem Hospital dying from the effects of carbolle acid poisoning, and the poison was administered by her husband. The only witness to the attempted murder is their little five-year old son, Charlie. Karsten and his wife are each thirty-six years old, live in a two-story frame building, at No. 729 St. Ann's-ave., and have two children, the boy already mentioned and a girl, Annie, seven years old. The couple had been eight years married, and in that time the wife had been the breadwinner. Karsten was sometimes soher, and at such times worked wife did laundry work

Just before 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Kar-sten, who had been absent from home for several sten, who had been absent from home for several days, entered the room where his wife was at work and, after a fierce exchange of curses, drew a bottle from his pocket, poured the contents into a glass, and suddenly seizing his wife round the neck, dashed the stuff down her throat. This is the testimony of their little child. Annon Lenner, a tailor, who lives in the adjoining rooms, heard the angry voices and then Kerster's growl. "You

- beast, drink this and die." There was a hoarse scream, a fall and Lenner ran into the rooms to find Mrs. Karsten rolling over and over on the floor, while her husband stood over her murmuring: "If I had only cut her throat it would have been easier and quicker done." On the table by his side was a vial, bearing the carbolic acid label, and hought at the drug store kept by acid label, and hought at the drug store kept by Carl Aschenbrand. No. 147 Third-ave. Patrolman Jones arrested Karsten and sent the woman to the Hariem Hospital, where she will, in all probability,

FORTY TRAINS TO BE TAKEN GFF.

Lawrence, Mass., Nov. 19,—The Boston and Maine Railroad Company will make a aweeping reduction in its train service on the various divisions. About forty trains will be cancelled on all of the divisions which this company operates. For some time the managers of the company have been keeping a record of trains that were not paying, and those trains are now to be cancelled. Some of the trains to be discontinued were run during the summer, and were not taken off when the winter time-table went into effect, It is estimated that by this cut-down in trains over 3,000 miles a day will be saved, with a reduction in running expenses of $2,000 a day.

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 19,-As the Boston and Maine freight train No. 234 in charge of Conductor Hilton, was leaving this city for Boston early this morning a gang of tramps attempted to board it. The trainmen saw them and at once set to work The trainmen saw them and at once set to work to keep them off. The tramps were armed with clubs and stones and made a fierce onslaught on the trainmen, finally forcing them to seek safety in the caboose. The tramps attacked this car and smashed all the windows with rocks. One of the missiles struck one of the yardmen and injured him slightly. Recent attacks on trains make the railroad men think that there is an organized band in this section, and an effort will be made to break it un.
